SHARING OUR STORIES &
MEASURING OUR COMMITMENT

Each person counts at BlueCross.

Our stories show how this commitment makes a difference in the lives of our employees and the people we serve.

POWER
OF WE

At BlueCross, diversity and inclusion is a top business priority.

We believe every person should be valued and respected for who they are. We know this supports our employees as they deliver on our mission to provide peace of mind through better health to our members. It also gives us a competitive advantage by intentionally creating a workforce that's a reflection of the individuals we serve.

We're also a mature diversity and inclusion company. Guided by our leadership team and board of directors, diversity and inclusion have been a focus for more than 20 years.

We hold ourselves accountable in many ways, including:

- Tying senior executive compensation to measurable goals
- Providing access to high-quality health care services that meet members' social, cultural, and linguistic needs
- Hiring, developing, and retaining diverse talent
- Developing cultural awareness and competence
- Fostering diverse supplier relationships and community partnerships

Diversity – like people – is always changing. That's why we've made a long-term commitment to fostering a culturally competent workplace where everyone is respected and part of the team.

JD Hickey, M.D.

President and CEO

For BlueCross, culturally competent care is our ability to provide members access to health care services that meet their social, cultural, and linguistic needs.

We also support health care providers in establishing safe, respectful environments for patients. This is especially important for patients who have been disproportionately affected by structural and systemic barriers, as well as racism and discrimination.

BlueCross remains committed to doing our part by investing in our communities and working alongside providers to help ensure everyone can reach their full health potential.

Dr. Andrea Willis

Senior Vice President and Chief Medical Officer

BlueCross is committed to supporting culturally competent care

The BlueCross BlueShield of Tennessee Foundation awarded $325,000 to Meharry Medical College to fund research on barriers to health care, poor health outcomes, and vaccine hesitancy in at-risk, largely minority communities.

Meharry researchers also worked with BlueCross clinical and data teams to use the company's Social Vulnerability Index, a tool created to identify factors that increase risk for negative health outcomes, in developing strategies to improve health equity and COVID-19 vaccine acceptance.

USING DATA TO BETTER UNDERSTAND HEALTH DISPARITIES

WE'VE RECENTLY OPENED EIGHT BLUECROSS MEDICAL CENTERS

that expand access to primary care – including urgent care and chronic disease management – making health care more affordable and convenient.

Diverse, Inclusive, and Recognized

For the fourth consecutive year, BlueCross has been selected as one of America's Best Employers for Diversity by Forbes.

The publication also ranked BlueCross as one of the 2021 Best Employers for Women. Across the U.S., only the top 300 companies that received the highest rankings received this recognition.

Word-of-mouth

It's worth noting that BlueCross can't compete for this award. Forbes also doesn't allow companies to request to be included.

Instead, the publication sponsors an independent, third-party study that surveys thousands of employees at companies around the country. Workers' perceptions of their own company and others, as well as publicly available diversity information, provide the annual results.

Developing a workforce representative of our members

While pursuing honors has never been our company's goal, we acknowledge the positive impact our intentional diversity focus has on our employees, and the service they provide to our members.

In 2020, BlueCross designated Juneteenth a paid company holiday, as one of three employee-suggested innovations to enhance our diversity and inclusion efforts.

For Meyoshia, honoring Juneteenth has long been a family tradition. She says her parents were her Black History 101 teachers who taught her the importance of strengthening her mind. One of the ways she did that was spending time with her grandfather, who was born in 1902 and lived to be 100.

“BlueCross took what was really an industry-leading step during this time. It just shows they value their employees’ perspectives and that the company unequivocally stands against racism. They mirror their words, and this is a show of genuine support.”

MEYOSHIA POWELL
Care Coordinator

Though born in Knoxville, Maria spent most of her summers in Peru until she was 18 and has kept strong connections to her father's native Peru.

"Our customer service teams have truly come together to make sure everyone is taken care of during the coronavirus pandemic. Working well together is the BlueCross way."

THE POWER OF WE

“Through my internship, I met great people at BlueCross who guided me and showed me the possibilities that were out there. Now, as a BlueCross employee, I see just how much my internship experience shaped me.”

KERRINGTON WILSON
Research Coordinator

As a college student, Kerrington attended the BlueCross Power of We Externship, to learn about available careers. He then accepted an internship with the Information Delivery department before accepting a full-time position as a Research Coordinator.

“My first day on the job was during Veterans Day, and I remember watching the ceremony at Cameron Hill as they honored Veterans. This really left a fond memory and showed the company’s commitment to ensuring they’re inclusive of individuals and their diverse backgrounds, beliefs, knowledge, and skill sets.”

8 Employee Resource Groups

An Employee Resource Group is a voluntary employee-led association organized around a common dimension of diversity:

- Women's Leadership Network
- Employee Veterans
- Generational Diversity
- Finance and Accounting
- BlueCross International Group
- BeYou @ Blue LGBTQ+
- UNIDOS Latino and Hispanic
- Valued Abilities

LGBTQ+ Employees

We offer a wide range of benefits including:

- Domestic partner health care benefits for same-gender partners
- Transgender benefits, including gender-reassignment surgery

We actively recruit and retain people who self-identify as LGBTQ+, through:

- Connecting with universities to encourage LGBTQ+ students to attend recruitment events
- Including sexual orientation and gender identity as part of our nondiscrimination policy

“I feel safe bringing my authentic self into any interaction at work. I’m not just physically and emotionally safe – I’m free from any prejudice or discrimination on a corporate level.”

headquartered in Chattanooga to employ people with intellectual and developmental disabilities through Project SEARCH.

We hire and provide internship opportunities for individuals with Autism Spectrum Disorders in partnership with the Mosaic program.

"I am very fortunate to have a team that appreciates my unique set of experiences and skills and that feels comfortable enough to ask me open and thoughtful questions to help ensure I can perform at my best every day."

KAITLYN EDGE
Digital Analyst

As a person who became blind as an adult, Kaitlyn Edge knows that it's impossible to consider all the unique situations that people who are blind or visually impaired have experienced. But she credits BlueCross as an employer that's "by far one of the best workplace experiences I have had since losing my vision."

4 Cultural Awareness Sessions Held in 2021

The company sponsors quarterly events available to all employees and designed to help us work better, together.

- Black History Month
- Israel Cultural Awareness Event
- Hispanic Heritage
- Veterans Day

“During the holiday season, we have a Jewish Menorah in the front lobby right next to the Christmas tree to honor the Chanukah Jewish holiday. To me, that is a sign of respect and inclusion of the many diverse backgrounds of BlueCross employees.”

TAL COHEN
Manager, Provider Data and panelist during the Israel Cultural Awareness Event

OUR COMMUNITIES

The BlueCross BlueShield of Tennessee Foundation is building BlueCross Healthy Places across the state. We have 17 projects open or under construction.

BlueCross Healthy Places may include a variety of features like playgrounds, sports fields/courts, and more. Each is free and open to the public, and they're accessible to visitors of all ages and abilities, so all of our neighbors can enjoy them.
